Kim Ward, left, Gayle Miller, Christina Cowherd, Susanne Taylor, Steve Warman and Patricia Jokisch of Aviawest present Charlotte Lawson, director of development for the Nanaimo and District Hospital Foundation with $6,048. The money was raised through a silent auction at the annual Aviawest owners' barbecue in August and will go towards areas at Nanaimo Regional General Hospital that require urgent and immediate attention. Last year the event raised $3,435 for the new surgical and maternity facilities at the hospital.
